The Addams Family 'Lurch' looking character above is Arthur Logan Decker III who is a textbook US law enforcement shill and informant primarily working in social media for the intelligence gathering interests of the Halfan Baha'i cult to which he belongs. He is certainly a member of the Baha'i Internet Agency, the Baha'i surveillance arm of the American NSA. He is literally subscribed to thousands of Facebook lists but barely ever posts in any of them. Online Decker also maintains close, longstanding ties and linkages to an assortment of individuals directly connected to North American alt-right/neo-Nazi/fascist far-right groups: individuals who are well known to be North American police informants.

Beware.

Arthur Logan Decker III An old friend from long ago. He blocked me because I refuse to unfriend the "fascists" on my friends list. And since I am skeptical and ask questions about many of the things that others find to be apparent and factual. I must be a Trump supporter and a bad person. Fm 🤔
